

Re: The Opening spot of Monday Night's Football game. I found it very offensive for many reasons:

1. Children watching at that time.
 2. Obvious sexual content, casual sex...in the LOCKER ROOM!
 3. A professional football player sending the message that casual sex in the locker room is worth not playing in the game. What kind of message did that send to the young boys watching?
 4. The trashy behavior of Ms. Sheridan: could that be every "Producer's" fantasy? No wonder they didn't see the degrading message it sends. Out of touch with the rest of the nation maybe?
 5. What did that spot have to do with Football? Is this the normal behavior of the players? Obviously the producer of that spot and the director in the booth thought so, and didn't think it was offensive?
 6. And once again, it was during the FAMILY HOUR!!! Parents and viewer have the right to expect NO offensive programming during those few hours at night. Why wasn't the spot shown later??????
- The FCC should fine all responsible for this blunder!!! And the network should fire both the producers and directors that let this spot air. AND MR. TERRELL OWENS SHOULD APPOLOGIZE FOR HIS BEHAVIOR. By the way...is he married?
